Press Release

18th June 2024

Fides Trustees SA obtains its license from the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA.

Following the introduction of Switzerland's new financial market regulations authorising Asset Managers and Trustees, we are delighted to announce that Fides Trustees SA has been granted its license from the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA.

This milestone is a testament to what can be accomplished through dedication, hard work, and collaboration.

This achievement wouldn't have been possible without the remarkable efforts of our incredible team and the unwavering support of our partners. Together, we navigated a long and rigorous process, showcasing the strength of our commitment and the excellence we strive to deliver to our clients.

For the past 14 years, our team has been fully dedicated to providing top-notch Trust and Company Administration services, and this new endorsement only strengthens our resolve to continue doing so.

We are more committed than ever to serving our clients with the highest standards of excellence and integrity.

Here's to many more years of success and exceptional service!
